

2 HOUR BRIEFING FOR FRONT LINE WORKERS

Outline

Safeguarding Children, Young People and Vulnerable Adults is everybody's responsibility. This course aims to raise awareness of:

- Vulnerability
- Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs)
- Organised Crime Groups (OCGs) / Gangs
- Modern Day Slavery
- Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE)/consent
- Criminal Exploitation(CE)
- Victim Blaming language
- National Referral Mechanism (NRM)
- Pathways / Diversionary Tactics / Sharing of Intelligence

Course Objectives

At the end of the course, it is intended that attendees will have a clear understanding of:

- Types of Criminal Exploitation & Modern Day Slavery
- Factors to support YP in vulnerable situations
- Adverse Childhood Experiences
- National Referral Mechanism and how to raise concerns
- Personal, professional accountability and responsibility
- Information sharing
- The importance of documentation and record keeping
- The use of non-victim blaming language
- How to Respond, Record and Report concerns
- The agencies / services that people can be signposted

These training sessions are available to any person who requires an insight into Vulnerability & Exploitation.

The course is funded by the PCC, John Campion, and is delivered, without cost, to the requesting organisation.

The only requirement is that a suitable room, with chairs and tables, is provided by the requesting organisation.

If training is requested in Hereford or Worcester, please give consideration to running two separate sessions per organisation, to best utilise available training time.
