Proven to improve oral language skills

OXFORD

What is the The Nuffield Early Language Intervention Programme?

An evidence-based 20 week oral language intervention programme for children in their first year of primary school who show weakness in their oral language skills and who are at risk of experiencing difficulty with reading.

Developed by a team of academic experts, the programme is underpinned by evidence* that demonstrates a positive impact on children's attainment.

 Randomised control trial conducted by the Education Endowment Foundation (EEF) in June 2018 and November 2019, involving 193 schools*

How does NELI fit with your curriculum?

The Nuffield Early Language Intervention programme can be used by schools following any curriculum. Support is provided within the teaching handbooks to correlate with the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Early Years Foundation Stage

Teachers might like to consider how a child performs against the below Early Years Foundation Stage outcomes for Communication and Language when considering whether a child would benefit from taking part in the programme.

	30 to 50 months	40 to 60+ months
Listening and attention	The child: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• listens to others one to one, or in small groups, when conversation interests them.• listens to stories with increasing attention and recall.• joins in with repeated refrains and anticipates key events and phrases in rhymes and stories.• can focus attention, still listening or doing but shifting own attention.• is able to follow directions (if not intently focused on own choice of activity).	The child: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• maintains attention, concentrates and sits quietly during appropriate activity.• displays two-channelled attention, listening and doing for short spans.

How it works: professional development provided by experts

A two-and-a-half day professional development course, run by specialist training consultancy Elklan, provides teaching assistants and teachers with all of the information and skills they need.

Delivered to groups of Teaching Assistants the professional development covers the pedagogical background as well as practical training on how to run the sessions.

How it works: resources

A comprehensive pack of resources provides:

- ★ lesson plans designed to be delivered by non-specialist teaching assistants as well as teachers
- ★ engaging materials, including picture cards and a puppet, to support children as they learn
- ★ assessment support to help monitor progress.
- ★ Resources kit only - £375.00
Price is valid until 31st December 2020. Subject to change without notice.

How it works: programme structure

The 20-week programme is divided into two 10-week blocks.

Each week, children take part in three group sessions and two individual sessions, focusing on vocabulary, listening and narrative skills in the first 10 weeks, with more letter-sound knowledge and phonological awareness introduced during the second 10 weeks.

Help with assessment

Support is provided for assessment and record-keeping, to demonstrate progress across a range of oral language measures.
