

The Twelve Friends

Pictures
One day there was a crowd of people who came to watch Jesus teach by Lake Galilee.	“Row me out into the lake” said Jesus to a fisherman named Peter. He preached to the people from a boat.	Afterwards, Jesus and the fishermen rowed the boat out further to try and catch some fish.
Pictures
They had not caught any fish the night before and were very sad.	But the night that Jesus was on the boat with them they caught so many fish their nets nearly broke!	“I want you to stop fishing in the sea and become a fisher of men!” said Jesus. And so these fishermen became the first of the twelve disciples.