Feeding the five thousand

L.I. I know Christians believe that Jesus cared about the people who followed him and listened to him.

I know I should care for others.

Jesus and his _____ went to a quiet place on a hillside for a rest, but lots of people _____ them. They wanted to listen to _____. There were about 5000 people in the crowd.

Jesus talked to the people for a _____ time. He was telling them about _____. Soon it was evening. The disciples said to Jesus, "It's getting late. Send the people away so that they can buy some _____." But Jesus did not want to send them away. He cared for them and wanted to give them food to eat. Andrew and Philip, two of his disciples, said to Jesus, "There is a boy here who has _____ barley loaves and two small _____."

Jesus told the disciples to get the people to sit down on the ground. Then he took the _____ and fish from the boy and thanked God for the food. Jesus broke the bread and fish into pieces and gave them to the disciples to hand out to the people. The people were _____ to see that the food never ran out! They all had plenty to eat.

When the meal was finished the disciples picked up the _____ food. It filled twelve baskets! Only Jesus could do such a great _____.
