

Forgiveness

Forgive, and you shall be forgiven:
(Luke 6:35-37)

Situation	How would you react?	How could you show forgiveness?	How would you react if you couldn't forgive?
Your friend has come round your house to play and breaks one of your favourite toys.
You trip over your friends PE kit that they have left lying around.
You catch someone copying you in an important test.

You arrange to meet at your friend's house but your family are too busy to take you.
Someone has packed your lunch and given you some sandwiches that you don't like.
Your friend has decided they don't want to play with you this lunch time and runs off.

Now write down some of your own examples of times you have forgiven someone.
