

St Andrew's Day

30th November

Who was St Andrew?

Andrew was one of Christ's Apostles. The _____ tells us he came from the city of Bethsaida. Both Andrew and his brother _____ were _____, but they gave up their jobs so they could follow Jesus.

Why is he remembered?

Like the other _____, Andrew lived and worked with _____. Once Jesus was crucified, the disciples became preachers and they spent the rest of their lives working for Christianity.

These were dangerous times for Christians, and Andrew also was _____. Some old stories say that he was _____ to a cross shaped like an X. It's probably not true, but that may be why Saint Andrew (as he became) was given a _____ with an X – shaped cross on it. When the Scots chose him as _____ saint of Scotland, it became their flag.

Andrew is also the patron saint of _____, of Cyprus and of fisherman and sailors. Saint Andrew's cross helps make up part of the Union Flag.
