

- * Write your name at the centre of the mindmap.
- * Then draw branches detailing the different roles and relationships you have with others.

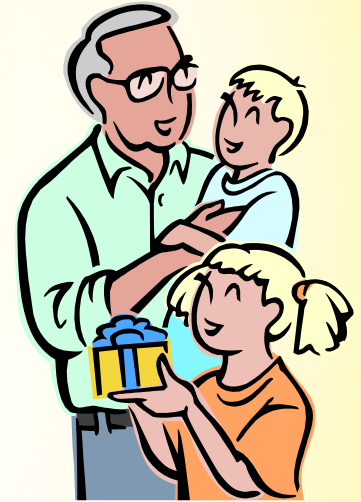

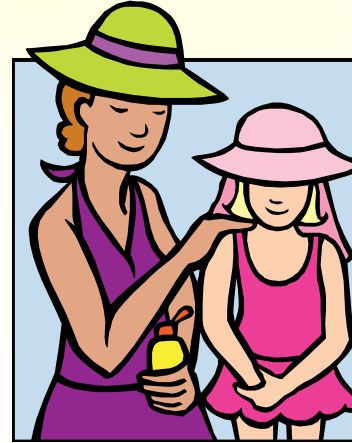

Example:

* Starter Mindmap

You take on different roles and responsibilities dependant on these relationships.

You are many different things to many different people.

* Feedback

*Lesson Objective:

- *How is one God expressed through many Gods?

Religious Studies KS2: My Life, My Religion -
Hinduism - BBC Teach

Immanent

Brahma

Brahman

Shiva

Vishnu

*Video Clip

Transcendent

Pantheist

1. Draw the Om symbol
2. Label the symbol with the Trimurti
3. Explain that aspect of God.

A) Is it easy to think about Brahman? Give reasons.

B) How does Hinduism make it easier for its followers to think about God?

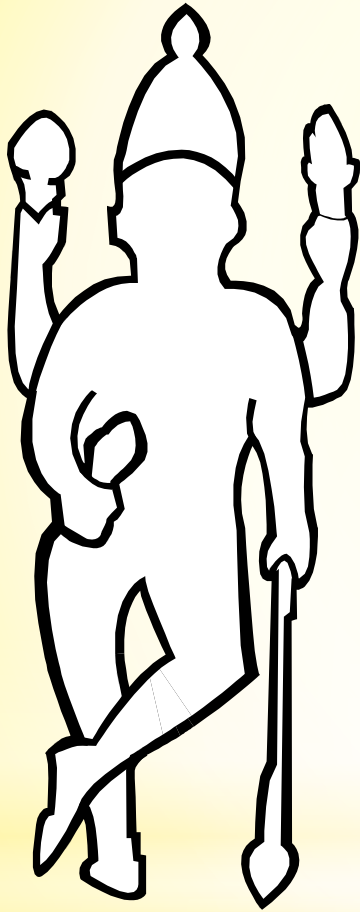

C) Why do you think the Hindu girl feels better when she thinks about Shiva?

 Task - Answer the following questions:

Write a 50 word maximum summary of what Hindus believe about God.

*Recap

- * Focus on one aspect of Brahman.
- * You are to recreate this version of God.
- * Draw and annotate his/ hers features.
- * Give reasons why.

* Homework