

Learning about Hinduism

Name:

12th January 2010

WALT: to know that Hindus respect cows and treat them with special care.

Fill in the missing words

milk	cowherds	eat	holy wealth	Hindus	Krishna	gentle
nothing	sacred

The cow is a very _____ animal to some _____. It is part of Hindu tradition to not _____ beef because of how the cow is sacred. Sacred means that something is _____ or special. The cow is sacred because it gives us life-sustaining _____ but asks for _____ in return.

Most Hindus respect the cow for her _____ qualities and for providing the nurturing milk. In Hinduism, the cow is a symbol of, _____, strength, selfless giving and a full Earthly life.

Cows are also connected with _____. Krishna is a form of Vishnu, who is the preserver. Krishna's foster parents were _____, which means that they looked after cows.