

JOSEPH IN EGYPT

Joseph was taken to Egypt and sold to a man called Potiphar.

Joseph worked hard and soon Potiphar put him in charge of his house. Joseph had a special talent and Pharaoh heard about this talent of explaining peoples dreams and he wanted his help.

God showed Joseph what Pharaoh's dreams meant. Joseph said, "God is warning you. After seven years with plenty of food, the rains will stop. Nothing will grow for the next seven years. But if you plan, you can save your people from starving. You must store food during the good years. Then you can feed your people during the bad years."

"You are a wise man, Joseph," said Pharaoh. "You shall be in charge of all this."

Joseph worked hard to carry out the plans that God showed him. He made sure that lots of food was stored. And when the bad years came, Egypt had plenty of food to feed its people. In explaining the king's dreams, Joseph gave the king the good news and the bad news. The king recognized that God was giving Joseph wisdom, so he made Joseph the second most powerful person in Egypt.
