

1. You have been asked to turn this old building into a Gurdwara. In your books, write down the numbers 1-6 and put what room you would turn it into. For number 7, say what would be placed outside.
2. The Gurdwara is now set up and you are in charge of the daily running of the building. Do a diary entry of how each room is used and what happens in them. You also need to write why each room is important and which Sikh beliefs each relate to.

1. You have been asked to turn this old building into a Gurdwara. In your books, write down the numbers 1-6 and put what room you would turn it into. For number 7, say what would be placed outside.
2. The Gurdwara is now set up and you are in charge of the daily running of the building. Do a diary entry of how each room is used and what happens in them. You also need to write why each room is important and which Sikh beliefs each relate to.