Meeting the OFSTED Requirements for Equality and Diversity for Governors

Course Tutor: Kirsty Holden, Qamar Maqsood

Target Audience: Governors

Course Content

This course will:

- consider the key OFSTED and national legislation and guidelines relating to equality and diversity in schools
- develop an understanding of governors' roles and responsibilities in relation to equality and diversity and the promotion of fundamental British Values
- look at why issues around equality and diversity need to be central to the ethos of a school
- explore ways of promoting positive approaches to equalities and diversity

Key Outcomes

Delegates will gain an understanding of:

- how schools can meet their duty to eliminate discrimination, promote equality of opportunity and foster good relations between pupils
- how embedding equality and diversity in the school can support all children's social, moral, spiritual and cultural development
- how schools can meet the needs of minority ethnic pupils and those learning English as an additional language

Cost per delegate *
