Upcoming Training Courses

Living good lives: Effective hospital discharge planning for adults with learning disabilities and/or autistic adults to prevent future admissions

This is the third of three webinars in a series aimed at supporting health and social care practitioners to enable adults with learning disabilities and/or autistic adults to live good lives along the homes not hospitals pathway.

Time: Monday, 15 November 2021 - 12:30pm to 2:00pm

Zoom Webinar (online event)

Cost: Free

Booking: https://www.basw.co.uk/events/living-good-lives-effective-hospital-discharge-planning-adults-learning-disabilities-andor?utm_medium=email&utm_source=scupdate&utm_campaign=oct21

This webinar is for social care providers and social workers supporting hospital discharge for adults with learning disabilities and/or autistic adults.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT HOURS 1.50

Hear perspectives from people with lived experience, BASW England, Skills for Care, CQC and NICE on the following areas:

Current priorities for positive hospital discharge identified by adults with learning disabilities and/or autistic adults and insight from CQC

How to access resources and training to support positive hospital discharge and prevention of readmission for adults with learning disabilities and/or autistic adults in hospitals

What good hospital discharge planning looks like, including contingency planning, MDT support, care and treatment reviews, and taking a life-span approach.

The living good lives webinar series has been organised collaboratively between BASW England, Care Quality Commission, Skills for Care and NICE.

Two related webinars:

- Creating a positive and therapeutic culture in hospitals for adults with learning disabilities and/or autistic adults

“THE ROLE OF SAFEGUARDING PARTNERS IN THE SOCIAL CARE REVIEW”

Many of you have already registered to our next webinar, however, for those that haven't, there is still time to book your place at our Webinar on Monday, 25th October 2021 at 4:00pm to 5:15pm.

REGISTER FOR WEBINAR 20 HERE

In Webinar 20, we are delighted to be joined by Josh MacAlister, who is leading the Independent Review of Children's Social Care. He joins us to discuss the progress of the Review and will be inviting colleagues to join a discussion on some key topics emerging from the work. This is an opportunity for Safeguarding Partners to discuss their perspectives on how the review can tackle the strategic issues around joint working arrangements to protect children and young people.

AS THE REVIEW IS FAR WIDER THAN ANY SINGLE AGENCY DEBATE, PLEASE FEEL FREE TO INVITE ANY OF YOUR PARTNERS TO ATTEND THIS WEBINAR

JOSH MACALISTER

Josh is Chair of the independent review of children's social care. A former teacher, Josh founded the social work charity Frontline in 2013. He has stepped down from his role as Chief Executive to lead the review.

For all things around the Review and for Review updates you can check out the website here.

We will run our Webinar in the normal format with:

The meeting and conversation taking place through Zoom and

- The presentation and forum questions and commentary running through Xleap.

Don't forget to book you place now!
