EY 343 - Let's Get Communicating and Reading in the Outdoors

Venue: Apley Woods, Pintail Drive, Apley, TF1 6US

Date: Thursday 14 March 2024

Time: 4pm to 5.30pm

(Please arrive for 3.45pm for a 4pm start).

Who should attend?

Forest School Leaders, Early Years Practitioners, Teaching Assistants and Teachers.

Why should I attend?

We need to demonstrate and support children in experiencing different ways of communicating, and using a natural outdoor learning environment is another area that we can utilise this. Forest School and outdoor learning is a great way to motivate, engage and spark children's learning, curiosity and imagination in the outdoors and nature. This training will provide you with fresh ideas and activities to use with children and young people.

Aims and objectives:

- A range of practical communication friendly and literacy activities to support, enthuse and engage with early year's children in a natural outdoor learning environment.
- An understanding of how communication, language and literacy can present in nature and support learning and development of children in the natural world
- An opportunity to network with other practitioners to share experiences and good practice.

Additional Information:

Parking: - Please park along Peregrine Way, Apley opposite Nuthatch Crescent. Please wait the metal horse shaped gate on the road and Forest School Leader will meet you.
