

MULTICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT TEAM

Improving EAL Pupil's Writing Through Oracy

Tuesday, 12th March 2024 (1.15pm – 3.30pm)
VIA TEAMS

Target Audience

EAL Co-ordinators and class teachers

Course Content

The course will:

- Explore the potential barriers to successful writing for EAL learners
- Provide guidance on successful strategies to support the development of writing
- Provide expectations of progress and identification of whole class/intervention strategies, which can enable children to develop their writing and meet age appropriate expectations. These approaches are equally relevant to monolingual pupils who struggle with writing.

Key Outcomes

Delegates will explore:

- The process of children's additional language development when they are in the early stages of developing English competency in writing
- Barriers to becoming a successful writer
- Strategies to develop writing accuracy including sentence structure, grammar, usage of Tier 2 and 3 vocabulary in writing
- Using speaking, listening and reading strategies to broaden and deepen vocabulary usage to engage the reader of their writing
- Supporting the development of EAL children's independent writing
