

MULTICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT TEAM

Meeting the OFSTED Requirements of Teaching of Protected Characteristics

Tuesday, 19th March 2024 (1.15pm – 4pm)
VIA TEAMS

Target Audience

Headteachers, EAL Co-ordinates and class teachers

Course Content

This course will:

- provide an understanding of the protected characteristics and their links to the key OFSTED and National legislation.
- consider why issues around equality and diversity need to be central to the ethos of a school and explore the guidelines relating to equality and diversity in schools.
- promote understanding of teachers' roles and responsibilities in relation to teaching of protected characteristics and the expectation to teach and promote British Values within the whole school curriculum.
- support senior leaders to effectively assess and audit provision to meet OFSTED expectations.

Key Outcomes

Delegates will explore:

- how inspectors will gather evidence on the promotion of equality and pupils' understanding of the protected characteristics
- the protected characteristics
- practical ways to meet all schools' duties eliminate discrimination, promote equality of opportunity and foster good relation between pupils as outlined in key legislations.
- how embedding equalities and diversity in the school can support all children's social, moral, spiritual and cultural development and prepare them for life in modern Britain.
- how assessment tools and links to curriculum provision for year groups can form part of wider approach to equality and diversity
- embedding British Values within individual schools

Cost per delegate *

Schools & Academies	£99
10% discount per delegate for two or more bookings on the same course

The training courses will be held online via Microsoft Teams.

To book a place on this course, please complete a booking form and email to School Improvement

✉ Email: cpdschoolimprovement@telford.gov.uk

☎ Tel: 01952 380861

