

Volunteer title	Board Games Group Volunteer
Where is the role based?	Madeley, Newport, Southwater, Wellington Libraries
What is the aim of the role?	To coordinate and run a Board Games Group in a library.
What would I be expected to do?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To be able to facilitate and join in with customers to engage in playing board games, card games etc. • To be able to communicate effectively with customers • To be able to organise a productive games session. • To collect any anecdotal feedback, numbers and requests to the Volunteer Coordinator.
What training will I be offered?	You will be offered mentoring and shadowing for running the group and will receive training about relevant health and safety procedures. You would also learn how to play the games if needed.
What kind of person are they looking for?	We are looking for people who love playing games and would like to support others in the community to enjoy the same. You will need to be reliable, patient, good at listening, enjoy meeting new people and most importantly be willing to join in. Organisational skills and a basic understanding of board games and card games would be useful but this can also be learnt during your training.
How much time would I need to commit to the role?	Two hours per week/fortnight/month depending on your availability.
What support would I be given?	A member of library staff is always available when needed either face to face, phone or email. There are also regular volunteer meetings where you can meet other volunteers in the Library Service.
