

The Stay True Project

THE STAY TRUE PROJECT is a new initiative, using a child centred approach to support young people who are especially at risk of exploitation to make a positive, lasting life changes. We are extremely passionate about making a positive change in young peoples lives. Tim Allin is the Project Manager who has life experience and uses these along with the qualifications he has gained to how understanding and connect with the young people he supports. Tim was exploited at the age of 11 years old which led to a life of drug misuse, criminal and gang activity. Tim transformed his life and spent many years working with young people with emotional and behavioural difficulties. Tim has worked as a youth worker, children's senior residential practitioner, children's care home deputy manager and registered manager.
