UNIVERSAL CREDIT

Description

If you're unemployed, off work due to sickness or on a low income, you could be eligible for Universal Credit, a means-tested benefit to help you meet your basic living costs.

Who can claim Universal Credit?

You can make a claim if:

- You're out of work or on a low income;
- You're aged 18 or over (there are exceptions if you're 16 or 17);
- You or your partner are under state pension age;
- You have less than £16,000 in savings – if you have a partner, their savings count too (if you are self-employed, some savings may not count if they're for business purposes, for example tax. Full details are given below);
- You live in the UK;
- You currently receive any of the benefits that Universal Credit is replacing, for example Income Support or Housing Benefit – and your circumstances have changed.

How to apply

Universal Credit is administered by the Department for Work and Pensions. You can make a new claim by visiting www.gov.uk

While Universal Credit claims are normally fairly easy to complete, Citizens Advice offer a Help To Claim service that can assist you with the early stages of your claim. This is particularly helpful for people who have difficulty doing things online for any reason.

You can contact a Help to Claim adviser through their free phone service. Advisers are available between 8am to 6pm, Monday to Friday: England phone: 0800 144 8 444; England textphone: 18001 0800 144 8 444.
